NEWS OF THE DAY. THE WAR.

We have received the congratulatory order of Major General Pleasonton to his troops for their routing Austria or possessor of the duely. and destruction of the invasionary army of the Rebel Price in Missouri. This official paper is dated at Fort Scott, Kansas, on October 26, and is accesspanied by a dispatch from General Rosecrans complimenting Gene and Pleasonton and his soldiers in the highest terms for times his number, and routed them, capturing ten pieces his chief elerk and the superintesdent of the military which Jeff. Davis threatened and Hood undermais, also emphatically deaying it. These gentlemen which Jeff. Davis threatened and Hood undermais, also emphatically deaying it. These gentlemen hundred wagons, and killing, wounding and taking have been connected with the Post office for forty pook, has come to nothing. Hood undoubtedly always victoriously for the Union arms, and with greatly the least possible delay. For many days past more superior numbers on the opposing side, will rank among than a thousand of these letters, with votes and powers.
